Adventure Awaits, a Canadian eco focused family travel website recently featured us on their found up article "22 Canadian Eco Tour Adventures Worth Investing in for 2022." Canadians have a unique opportunity to be able to explore one of the world's most magical destinations, right here in our backyard. Which is why we want to share with you these 22 Canadian Eco Tour Adventures that are sure to be unforgettable experiences for your family.

"Le Baluchon Éco Villegiature can only be described as experiencing the future while travelling to the past... At least that's how it felt the second we arrived at Le Baluchon Éco Villégiature, Québec's premier eco-tourism resort. 1,000 pristine Canadian acres await your family with an "eco-resort," experience awaiting. The transformation for visitors largely comes from the way they interact and think about nature and the environment. From the materials used to build the guest rooms and the locally-sourced, sustainable food options available on-site, to the never-ending list of outdoor activities that take guests back to the days our ancestors lived off the land, a stay at Le Baluchon Éco Villégiature is a stay with purpose."
